Pittsburgh, August 31. tf

☞ On hand a few Kegs prime HOG'S LARD and half a ton of TALLOW.

To Emigrants.

HAVING associated myself with a considerable company for the purpose of settling a new place in the state of Illinois, opposite the mouth of White river and Patoka, at the foot of the Grand Rapids of the Wabash, (MOUNT CARMEL) with an intention to remove to it, as soon as practicable, I have contracted for the making and burning of 150,000 brick, which I wish put up next season into buildings, and the bricklayer's and carpenter's work undertaken conjointly, the plaistering and whitewashing included. Lands adjoining the Town, and town lots, at cash prices, and cash, a proportion of each will be given in payment when the work is completed.

Having entered lands for the accommodation of settlers favourable to the views of the settlement, a considerable body adjoining the settlement and town lands, divided into lots of from 50 to 100 and 160 acres each may be had at the Congress prices, with the exception of the interest on the money paid, and a small advance to defray expences, &c.

I wish to employ some persons to enclose wild lands for me, for which I will pay in hand cash prices. I have a body of open and timbered lands, that I would lease from 5 to 10 years on advantageous terms to emigrants unable to purchase. A convenient farm to let, by an early application to the Agent may be had.

A canal for boats and water works around the Grand Rapids of the Wabash, a company is forming to commence opening next season, that will afford employment for labourers, and no inconsiderable inducement to capitalist to invest their funds in the establishment. Considerable encouragement and aid have already been tendered for that purpose by emigrants from the Eastern States. The river is open for navigation from this place to New-Orleans all the year.

Application may be made to WM. BEAUCHAMP, the Agent for the establishment, residing in Mount Carmel, or to the subscriber, residing at present in New-port. None need apply but moral characters.

CASH.

I HAVE determined to sell my FARM, at the fork of Chartier's creek, in the county of Washington, fifteen miles from Pittsburgh, consisting of about 214 acres, so low for CASH as to make it a great object for any one having the command of money. Its advantages in point of soil, timber, water, sugar-camps, neighbourhood, proximity to mills, markets, the turnpike road from Washington to Pittsburgh, meeting houses and an exeellent college, are well known—Added to these, some enterprising individuals of capital, are now boring for Salt within a quarter of a mile of it, at a lick which has produced salt from the surface, so that no doubt is entertained of their success. This will be useful, not only to the vicinity in general, but it will be of peculiar benefit to the tract hereby offered for sale, as it will afford a constant market for the stone coal with which the land abounds. I will give the purchaser a PATENT in my own name and a general warranty deed. The title is indisputable. I am willing to dispose of eight or ten other tracts, on moderate terms.

WESTERN HOTEL,

No. 228 MARKET STREET,

Sign of General Washington.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public, that he has taken that well known establishment in Market street, next door to the Pittsburgh Mail Stage Office, and lately occupied by Mr. George Yohe. To those who have been accustomed to resort to this house, it is unnecessary to point out its superior advantages. For the information of others we deem it necessary to state that its situation is central, high, healthy and convenient to business; an extensive range of back buildings, consisting of lodging rooms, afford a fine view of the city to the eastward, and admit a free and uninterrupted circulation of air—and what will give them a decided preference in the opinion of many, is the attachment thereto of balconies, so constructed as not only to afford pleasant promenades, but easy means of escape in the event of any necessity from any sudden alarm of fire. The great Western Stages start every morning from the door, and on the premises is one of the best Livery Stables in the city, conducted by Mr. John Tomlinson, where travellers' horses will be faithfully attended to. With these advantages, and some other improvements now making added to his own unremitted exertions to please, the subscriber confidently hopes for, and very respectfully solicits a share of public patronage.

Philadelphia, August 11.—law3m[illegible]

To Rent or Sell,

A BREWERY, pleasantly situated on the bank of the Ohio river in the town of Gallipolis, county of Gallia and state of Ohio.

This Brewery is in complete operation, and has all the necessary buildings &c. adjoining the same, such as malt-house, kiln, pump &c. There is a piece of woodland attached to the property, where timber and firewood can be obtained in any quantity, for the use of the brewery. Barley can also be had on reasonable terms from the farmers in the neighbourhood, who now attend pretty largely to the cultivation thereof.

This brewery is in a fine situation for business—4 miles below the mouth of the Great Kenhawa, on which river any quantity of malt liquors can be sold for the consumption of the Salt works.

The buildings and pump are calculated for the establishment of a Distillery, which would be of great advantage in Gallipolis where there is none.

Terms will be made easy and accommodting, or further particulars, apply to

PETER MAGNIER.

[illegible] Valuable Estate

FOR SALE

THAT beautiful estate, commonly known by the name of MONTOURS' or LONG ISLAND, about five miles below Pittsburgh, in the Ohio river, containing in the whole 1,000 acres, is offered for sale. It is divided into three separate tracts, on each of which there are handsome improvements; the land is of the best quality, well timbered, and not subject to overflow. It is universally esteemed, both as to soil and situation, the finest property in the western country. The proprietors would prefer selling the whole in a body, but to suit purchasers, it may be divided into three tracts.

The terms may be known by applying to Major Isaac Craig on the premises, or to the subscriber, who is agent for the proprietors, at his office in Pittsburgh.

JAMES HALL,
Attorney at Law

Pittsburgh Gazette

FRIDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 24, 1819.

It was with no common feelings of satisfaction, that we presented to our readers, with our last number, the Message of Governor Findlay. This interesting document is creditable to our executive, not only from the conciseness and purity of its style, but from the variety of important points which it embraces; and as Pennsylvanians we feel proud in seeing the attention of those, whom the Governor emphatically terms "the guardians of the public welfare," turned to these momentous subjects.

With regard to Inland Navigation, a subject in which the inhabitants of western Pennsylvania are more deeply interested than in any other, the Governor is very explicit. He is still it is true, fascinated with the golden speculations of Mr. Breck, and looks forward with delight to the completion of those great schemes by which the eastern and western waters are to be united, and when the luxuriant shores of the Ohio and Mississippi will waft their produce through the heart of our state to the cities of the Atlantic. On this subject we have already given our opinion. We cheerfully pay homage to the genius of Mr. Breck, and we acknowledge that his exertions to advance the great interests of Pennsylvania, are deserving of the highest praise. But we do consider his scheme of slack water navigation to be entirely impracticable at present; for with whatever success or advantage such projects may hereafter be prosecuted, when the margins of the streams proposed to be navigated are crowded with rich farms, and the intervening mountains populated with an industrious peasantry, we are far from being convinced, that the western trade alone, will at this time authorise the expense of a circuitous water communication which could only be used periodically, and which would not obviate the necessity of making and keeping in repair the route by land. We say that the necessity of having a good road between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia will not be obviated by uniting the waters of the Susquehanna and Allegheny, because there are seasons when neither the rivers or the canal which would connect them would be navigable, and when, of course we should be obliged to resort to the road; but the road may be travelled at all seasons, and if properly made, would at all times be equally good. If we prosecute both of these objects the attention and resources of the state will be divided between them, and both will languish for want of nourishment; if but one of them is to be encouraged, we say that the road is the most immediately necessary, and will be the most permanently useful.—The importance of our turnpike we are happy to find, is acknowledged by the executive, nor are we less pleased to see that he also recommends the clearing of the Ohio river in the most unequivocal language. On this subject we shall touch again.

We affronted some of our brother editors by saying Governor Findlay was a practical man, and decidedly in favor of western improvements. What will they say now? The Governor has directed the attention of the legislature to the great objects of internal improvement and domestic economy; and if the sound practical maxims which he has laid down are acted upon, the result will be creditable and advantageous to the state. We presume that there are few who will not go heart and hand with the executive in the prosecution of any measures for the promotion of industry and economy, and for the expulsion of expensive pleasures and foreign luxuries. The times are too serious for trifling; and we hope that the people and their representatives, will lay aside party and local feelings, and attempt to devise some speedy means of extrication from the confusion and distress in which we are involved. The governor has taken up this subject, it will be for the legislature to pursue it. The event will shew which branch of our government is the most practical.

BEDFORD, Oct 20.

We have thought it our duty to state that three out of the five prisoners who escaped from the jail of this county, on Thursday last, have been re-taken and returned to prison. Lewis and Connelly, two of the most dangerous offenders, are still at large, and we must entreat our fellow citizens, who have already used such laudable exertions in pursuit of these highway men, not to give up the search. Lewis was so much injured in cutting off his irons, and his legs so much swelled by confinement, that it is not probable he has travelled far as yet, and the snow, which has lately fallen, will afford an excellent opportunity for tracking him, if he be yet in the mountains. We beg our fellow citizens, in every part of this and the adjacent states, to keep a good lookout for Lewis and Connelly, and not suffer themselves to be lulled into security until they have positive and official intelligence of their capture. Some hundreds of the citizens of this county have been out in pursuit, and many are still out. Should the robbers be arrested we will give immediate information of the fact.

Lewis is about six feet high, square shouldered, strait and well made. Reddish hair, lately cut—speaks quick and has a fierce look. Connelly is better than 6 feet high, not fleshy but weighs 230 or 40 lbs. He has dark brown hair, also lately cut, little or no whiskers, and no much beard, rather long or lantern jaw'd, and has a down look. He is an Irishman by birth, but speaks tolerable good English, though somewhat broad.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 8, 1819.

Extract of a letter from an officer attached to the Yellow Stone expedition to his friend in this town dated,

CAMP MISSOURI,
COUNCIL BLUFFS, Oct. 25.

'I have the pleasure of informing you of my arrival at this place on the 17th inst. after a most fatiguing and tedious journey. The troops at this encampment are about 1000 strong; and we are at present encamped in tents, waiting for our quarters to be finished, which will be all in next month.

'The rifle regiment will proceed up the Missouri, probably as far as the Yellow Stone, on the opening of the spring. We shall remain at this place until further orders. We are surrounded by Indians of different tribes, but they evince a disposition to be friendly.'

Extract of a letter from the Council Bluffs, dated, October 9.

'This is a most beautiful situation, the air exceedingly pure and dry, & the climate entirely healthy. It is a fine position for a strong military post, being a point which will hold in check the Pahis, Otto's, Louvay's, Mana's and some bands of the Sioux, all living within three or four days' march, and able to bring into the field four thousand warriors.

The Pahis live up the Platte in three bands, but perfectly united, have two thousand warriors, and are the terror of the surrounding tribes. They have never felt the arms of the U. S. & have not been very careful to avoid giving us displeasure. You have heard of the robbery committed by them on some of the gentlemen of Major Long's boat. Besides that they took two Americans from the Arkansas this summer, and detained them until lately. They consider the Spaniards as their lawful prey. The frontiers of Mexico, separated by some days' ride over open plains, present them with constant of objects of plunder. A month since a war party returned from one of their excursions in that direction, bringing off about two hundred head of horse and mules, chiefly the latter. They had also killed three Spaniards. They have immense numbers of horses and mules—From four to six thousand may be seen at one view, covering the plains about the villages, all taken from the confines of Mexico.

The Kansas and Otto's have been at war. A paece has been effected under the auspices of the U. S. agent.'

AMERICAN MANUFACTURES.

Extract from the minutes of a convention of the friends of national industry, assembled in the city of New-York, to take into consideration the prostrate condition of our manufacturers, and to petition congress for their relief and protection, which commenced on the 20th November, and terminated on the first December, instant.

Col. WILLIAM FEW, of New-York, President, MATHEW CAREY, of Philadelphia, Secretary.

The following gentlemen appeared as delegates, and after presenting their credentials, took their seats in the Convention.

From Massachusetts, Samuel Davis James Shepherd.

From Rhode-Island, Samuel Greene.

From Connecticut, John Babcock. Charles Bostwick, Theodore, Dwight, John R. Watkinson, James M. L. Scofield.

From New-York, Wm. Few, H. E. Haight, Isaac Pierson, Jos. Smith, Peter H. Schenck, Mathew L. Davis, Thomas Morris.

From Greenwich, (Village,) Robert Kelly, James Lamb.

From Fishkill, Abraham H. Schenck,

From Poughkeepsie, George Boothe, James W. Stevens.

From New-Jersey, Peter Cole, Daniel Holsman, Nicholas Smith, Samuel Colt, John Manning,

From Pennsylvania, Mathew Carey. William Young, Thomas Hulme, Samuel Richards. George M'Calmont, John Harrison, Henry Horn.

From Delaware, James Siddal, E. I Dupont.

From Maryland, John Hillen, John Sykes.

From Ohio, Arthur Tappan.

A number of other gentlemen also attended from various parts of the United States, who although not regularly appointed as delegates, afforded the convention the benefit of their information on the important business, for the transaction of which they were convened.

Sundry resolutions were offered for consideration, containing the principles proper to be introduced into a memorial to congress: which resolutions having been discussed and adopted, were referred to a committee appointed to draft said memorial. At a subsequent meeting, the committee reported the draft, which after undergoing some amendments, was unanimously adopted.

It was then ordered, that said memorial be signed by the secretary; and that it be transmitted to congress and printed.

On motion, resolved, That it be strongly recommended to the manufacturers in each of the different states, to appoint a committee of publication for the purpose of disseminating such essays as may be calculated to dispel prejudices that exist on the subject of manufactures.

On motion, resolved, That it may be recommended, in the most earnest manner, to the manufacturers and their fellow citizens in the different states, to form societies for the encouragement of domestic industry, and to call a convention in each state, on the third Monday in December (instant,) for the purpose of ascertaining the rise, progress, and decay of manufactures throughout the Union; and that they appoint, at such state conventions, delegates to meet a general convention to be held in the city of New-York, on the 3d Monday in January, next, there to report such information as may be collected in pursuance of this resolution.

Resolved, unanimously, That this convention entertain a high respect for the perseverance, zeal, and talents, which have been displayed by the authors of the Philadelphia addresses on the subject of National Industry; and that, in conformity with these feelings, the convention present them their most sincere and hearty thanks for their great and patriot efforts.

Ordered, That all written communications which it is necessary to make previous to the next general convention, be addressed to the President of the Pennsylvania Society, for the encouragement of American Manufacturers Philadelphia.

A committee was then appointed to forward the memorial to congress; to have the same printed; and generally to perform such services as become necesary to carry the decisions of the convention into full operation.

No further business appearing, the convention adjourned.

From the American Watchman.

One agent in this town, has received from two cotton mills, in one year, 136,162 pounds of cotton yarn for weaving—this has all been wove somewhere in the United States, very little of it was wove in this neighbourhood, other mills have sent in considerable quantities.

Now, if the above quantity only could be wove in Wilmington, it is believed it would have a considerable influence upon the general prosperity; 136,160 pounds of twist would make about 612,000 yards of muslin, 10 yards is a moderate day's work for a boy or girl of 14, and they will learn to weave, with somebody to superintend and keep the looms in order in a few days; it would then require about 200 weavers for the above quantity and 30 to 50 spoolers and superintendants. If this number was taken from the present idle and out of employ population, there would not be so much complaint.

It is pretty well ascertained that five cents per yard would cover all expenses of weaving and superintending, &c. the result then would be simply this, 612,000 yards at five cents will give $30,600, to be expended in the town in one year, and may be increased. This sum expended, and by a class that are now earning little or nothing must be sensibly felt by the owners of property, by the hawkers, the butchers, the grocers, and by all classes, some in their interest, and some by the gratification of their feelings, in the comforts they will see distributed, where want and distress now reign.

It is believed that an establishment for this purpose would support itself, at the above sum, for weaving; and probably give 6 per cent. interest, on a small capital. It cannot be put in operation to the extent supposed, at once; but let there be a beginning, and increase it till all the idle that will work are employed. Why send this yarn abroad, to Maryland, Virginia and Pennsylvania, where it is all wove; and let our poor at home starve, and our town go to ruin?

Nobody is more immediately interest in this scheme than the owners of property. If something is not done, our able and respectable builders must leave us to go and seek bread elsewhere.

If 100 persons would subscribe 20, 30, or $50 each, it would be sufficient.

In vain shall we form economical societies; in vain shall we introduce improvements in agriculture; in vain shall we call upon congress to aid manufactures; something more must be done. The poor, who are principally in the towns and cities, must be supported: and that plan which gives them support by labor is the most economical.

From the National Intelligencer, Dec. 13.

The United States' ship Columbus, the ship of the line built at Washington, dropt down from the Navy Yard a few days ago; and, notwithstanding the time was, from the lowness of the tides, unusually unfavorable for the attempt, she passed the bar at the mouth of the eastern branch with very little difficulty.—She is to be towed by the Steam Boat down to St. Mary's river, where her equipment for sea will be completed.—Had not the fear of detention by the ice prevented, it is believed she would have passed over the bar, and down the river, with all her armament and stores on board, water excepted.

The Columbus is to be commanded on her first voyage, by Com. Bainbridge, who has arrived at the seat of government for the purpose of taking charge of her.

A letter noticing the effects of the late awful hurricane in the West Indies states that upwards of 200 persons were killed, from the falling of houses at St. Bartholomews.

FEMALE ORATOR.

A lady, says the Boston Daily Advertiser of Thursday, will deliver an oration on Masonry, this evening at Concert Hall. The novelty of this undertaking will doubtless attract a numerous audience. We understand she is a person of very respectable connections; and that she has adopted this method in order to be enabled to prosecute claims to which she is a party, in a foreign land.

HORSE AND ELEPHANTS.

In the Horatio, on the 18th of last month, was imported from Bombay, an elegant Arabian horse, of the best breed reared at Bussorah, under the eye of East India Company's Resident, who has furnished the proprietors with a certificate that he belonged to one of the most esteemed casts of the Arabs. He is a very beautiful animal, and we should regret very much that he should go out of this state. The Arabian Godolphin, is the best racing blood in England. In the same ship was also imported an Elephant, of a larger size than any heretofore known in this country.

DISCOVERY.—Sir Humphry Davy has discovered a means to procure permanent light without flame; he has taught, that a platina wire of sufficient fineness, and an inch, or an inch and a half long, which has been heated red hot, may be long preserved in that state over a vessel in which there is sulphuric ether or alcohol, in a state of evaporation. Thus this incandessent wire may be employed as a cheap night lamp, or instead of a steel to light tinder.

A point of law saved!—James I. of Great Britain, who loved both to hear & say things that were humorous, had once a petition preferred to him, in which the petitioner having set forth his own merit, most humbly prayed his Majesty to grant him letters patent for receiving a shilling from every one of his subjects who should be willing to give so much to him. 'In gude troth,' said the king, 'a very reasonable petition. Let every man give the twa shillings gin he be willing so to do, and thee shall have full liberty to receive it.' 'But (says the petitioner) I desire that this clause may be inserted in my patent, That every mane who refuses to give me a shilling, should-appear at Westminster Hall and shew cause why he so refuses.' 'This also (said the king) shall be granted thee. but always with this proviso, That the man be willing to come.'—London Star.

PITTSBURGH.

Friday, Dec. 24, 1819

The people of Pennsylvania, on comparing the Message of their Governor, with those of the other executives of the Union, and even with that of the President of the United States, have no cause to be dissatisfied or mortified. The style of the composition of the document and the liberal views which it contains of the real interests of the state, must be gratifying to every Pennsylvanian, and inspire us with the most sanguine hopes that our assertion as to Mr. Findlay's being a practical man, will be verified by his conduct this session.

The manner in which the subject of manufactures is introduced, proves that our executive is impressed with the correct feelings on this momentous question, & although a state can do nothing but recommend, the decided tone which we have assumed on this occasion, may operate powerfully in our favor, at the seat of the general government, notwithstanding the indifference which the President's message displays. We begin to be of the opinion that the mode recommended by Mr. Findlay, of organizing societies for the encouragement of manufactures, will eventually be our only resource, as we almost despair of any governmental aid on the subject. We consider the obstinacy and prejudice evinced by so great a portion of our citizens on this point, as one of the most inexplicable traits of national character on record.

We do not think that quite enough stress is laid upon the necessity of perfecting ONE GREAT ROAD, in the first instance; however, sufficient is said to call the attention of the legislature to the subject, as their minds must already be well prepared. It might also be impolitic to have neglected touching on the other turnpikes, as we have discovered that every section of the state thinks its own the most important. We are happy to find that we have not the same complaint to make about the Ohio navigation; this most important business is touched upon as handsomely as it could have been done in a message, and we are really happy to find it viewed not as a local matter but as one affecting the whole state. Speaking of the report of the commissioners, the governor says, 'It is accompanied by drafts and plots with explanatory notes evincing the ability and assiduity of the commissioners in executing the duties assigned them!' It is but an act of common justice to say that the worthy and respectable men who constituted that board of commissioners were ably assisted by the ingenuity and industry of their secretary or surveyor, Magnus M. Murray, Esq. of this city.—The charts were his production and they bid a satisfactory proof both of his taste and perseverance, at the same time that they reflect the highest credit on the person. Walter Lowrie by whose recommendation he was employed in this very arduous service. We augur favourably of the improvement of our river from the evident surprise which Mr. Findlay evinces at the trifling sum that is deemed sufficient to carry this great work into operation, and we do hope that no cavilling opposition will be made to a loan or appropriation to be used as soon as the season permits. Every possible exertion is making by our rivals to give our trade a mortal stab, and we feel perfectly satisfied that if the present session is suffered to slip without something efficient we will be irremediably injured.

Mr. Brackenridge—For an additional auctioneer in Pittsburgh. To the members from Allegheny and Butler.

Mr. Wilkins—From manufacturers & others of Pittsburgh, for the incorporation of the Pittsburgh Manufacturing Association. Committee on domestic manufactures.

Mr. Jarrett offered a resolution—

Whereas it appears that a scene of distress and pecuniary embarrassment, unexampled in former years, has been of late exhibited throughout this Commonwealth: And whereas, at a period of general calamity, it is natural for the people to expect from the Legislature such an investigation into the causes which have produced the evils under which they labor, as may be likely to mitigate their sufferings, or at least to prevent their recurrence; And whereas, a proper regard for the interests of posterity, as well as of our constituents, requires that an exposition of the actual condition of our suffering fellow citizens, as well as of the causes which have been instrumental in procuring their distress, should be recorded in durable characters on the Journal of the House:—Therefore be it

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to inquire into the extent and causes of the present general distress, and to recommend to the consideration of this House, such measures as in their opinion may be best calculated to alleviate the public sufferings, and prevent the recurrence of a similar state of things.

Resolved, That the said committee be authorised to act in conjunction with a similar committee of the Senate, should such an one be appointed. Laid on the table.

Mr. Wilkins, for aid to the Greensburgh and Pittsburgh turnpike, with a statement of the accounts of the company.

Mr. Wilkins, from the committee on the Susquehanna and Waterford turnpike reported a bill, a supplement to the act incorporating that turnpike company; he asked leave to present it to the chair; and leave was granted.

Mr. Ogle offered a resolution, That Monday next, at 11 o'clock, the House will form a committee according to law, to try the legality of the election of John B. Trevor, an admitted member of the House; which was agreed to.

DECEMBER 12.

Mr. Coulter presented six petitions from inhabitants of Somerset and Westmoreland counties, for an appropriation in aid of the Somerset and Stoystown turnpike company; and he moved the reference of these petitions, together with all others on the same subject from the turnpike companies between Harrisburgh and Pittsburgh, to a select committee.

An animated discussion took place on this motion. Messrs. Coulter, Wilkins, Thackara, Brackenridge and Randall supporting, and Messrs. Hill, Duane and Todd opposing it.

The motion was not agreed to, and the petitions were referred to the committee on roads and inland navigation.

Mr. Dewart, inhabitants of Northumberland, for a law making the stockholders of banks liable for the notes issued. Committee on banks.

Mr. Lehman, after a few prefatory remarks, offered the following resolution.

Resolved, That the Judiciary committee be instructed to enquire into the propriety of so amending the laws in relation to mortgages, as that priority of record shall constitute preference or priority of lien. Adopted.

The house proceeded to select a committee to try the validity of the election of John B. Trevor, member from Fayette, and Orr, Mitchell, Scott, Swartzwelder, Anderson, Wilson, Smith, Porter, Devor, Haas, were appointed the committee.

REPORTS.

Mr. Gilmore, bill, to revive and continue an act to encourage the warranting and patenting of lands, north and west of the Ohio, Allegheny, and Conewango creek.

Mr. Duane called up his resolution on the subject of slavery in the new States. After a few remarks from Messrs. Duane, Coulter and Thackara, and the resolution made the special order for Thursday next.

The following extract from the message of the Governor of Ohio to the Legislature, will be interesting as it shews the views of the Executive of that State with regard to an affair which has excited much sensation. GAZ.

The collection of the state tax, from the bank of the United States, having excited considerable sensation and speculation, at home and abroad, it may be expected that some allusion to it, would appear in the governor's message. The Auditor will lay before you the particulars of this transaction, which will show that the corporation have instituted suits against the public officers, and others, for the violation of their alledged immunity. The case of this company would not appear more entitled to notice, in an official communication from the executive, than that of any other public defaulter, who, supposing himself aggrieved, appeals to the courts of justice; were it not for the importance it derives from an interpretation of their act of incorporation, and to have been given by the Supreme Court of the United States. Under this sanction, their pretentions involve constitutional principles of the highest moment; implicating the question of state sovereignty, confessedly one of the strongest barriers that protect our republican institution.

Independent of the much controverted question of the constitutionality of this incorporation, its absolution from duties to the states, whose protection may become necessary to its very existence, is a principle that meets oppostion, strong and respectable. Other states have also asserted their right to fiscal exaction from that association; and though hindered, have not receded. I cannot doubt out that respect, to opposing opinions, manifested from high authority will induce the Supreme Court, in a new case, to re-examine their own—delivered in the first instance of the kind that appears to have come directly before that distinguished tribunal for adjudication.

In the present posture of affairs, no obvious course presents itself to my mind for the legislature of Ohio, but the alternative, either to concede to the bank its pretentions, or to permit the controversy to take the regular course of judicial proceedings, and await the decision. The former I should by no means advise, unless you are prepared to abandon the principles of your law—repeal it—restore the levy—and acknowledge that, by the Compact of Union, you have relinquished this incident to sovereignty; and no longer retain the power, concurrent with the general government, of taxing all monied corporations within your territor—a concession and acknowledgment to which I am strongly disinclined as well as to any interference, on your part, out of the ordinary line you would pursue in the case of any delinquent, in like manner claiming a legal exemption from taxation. I should, therefore, recommend that the latter alternative I have mentioned, be adopted, as best befitting the dignity of the state, suited to the situation of the dispute, and respectful to the Supreme Court. If the court sustain jurisdiction in this instance, which, on grounds of their former decisions, has been much doubted, the judgment or decree will receive due regard from the state.

The United States' bank ask no favors—solicit no compromise. In their opposition they rely upon strict law—to that they have resorted for redress; and it must be presumed that, if entitled, the law will afford them a remedy. If they fail, the conclusion is forcible, that the exclusive privilege, for which they contend, is unfounded; and that they are not distinguishable, by any such mark, from ordinary defaulters of the public revenue.

OHIO LEGISLATURE.

Gen. Harrison introduced into the Senate of Ohio, on the 9th inst. the following resolutions, which were read and ordered to lie on the table—

Resolved, That in the opinion of the Legislature of Ohio, the present pecuniary embarrassments of the country are in a great measure caused by the want of encouragement and protection to Domestic Manufactures, and that good policy requires that such modification of the Tariff or imported articles be immediately made, as will stop that inundation of Foreign Merchandize, which has destroyed or suspended the operations of the greater part of the Manufacturing Establishments of the United States.

Resolved, That in the present state of pecuniary embarrassment among the people, it is unwise and impolitic for the government to pay off the public debt more rapidly than the obligations it may have come under to its creditors may require, & that any surplus in the treasury would be more usefully employed in the internal improvement of the country by Roads and Canals, and in the support and encouragement of Domestic Manufactures.

Resolved, That our Senators in Congress be instructed, and our Representatives requested, to use their exertions to procure the passage of laws, embracing the principles recommended in the foregoing resolutions.

The joint committee appointed to examine the abstracts of votes returned to the secretary of states' office, from the several counties in this state; and to ascertain therefrom the number of votes given in the state at the last election, for and against a convention—have carefully examined said abstracts and find the votes to stand—

For a Convention,	6,987
Against it,	29,315
Majority against a Convention.	23,328

Baltimore, Nov. 18.

It is highly gratifing to observe the renewed activity in business which is now so conspicuous in our lately quiet, and in some measure distressed city. The energy of disposition which is the charateristic of the great majority of our citizens, will soon enable them to rise above the difficulties which for a short time have interrupted their rapid march in the road to prosperity. *Fed. FALLS OF TALLULAH.

The lovers of the Fine Arts will be gratified to learn, that Mr. Diemer, has commenced a panoramic painting of the Falls of Tallulah, or Torrore, from a sketch taken by himself. Except the Falls of Niagara, those of Tallulah are considered in point of grandeur and sublimity, the first of natural curiosities in America. Although it may lose some of its grandeur when compared with Niagara and its mighty world of waters, yet it gains accumulated interest from a more diversified scenery, and from its gigantic banks, rising from two to five hundred feet above the level of the water with its craggy cliffs frowning upon the awful abyss below.

Mr. D. is a young artist of fair promise. We have seen some fine specimens from his pencil; and if permitted to express an opinion, we would say that they are assurances that the interesting subject of Tallulah, in his hands, will lose nothing of interest or accuracy. Agusta Chron.
